"These are four of the most respected and experienced filmmakers in the industry," said Ben Pfeifer, VP New Business. "They've achieved a tremendous level of success by creating exceptional content that helps enthusiasts, brands and other filmmakers tell compelling stories. We are excited to welcome these artists to our growing footage library and to support them in reaching new customers around the world."

"We are thrilled to be joining Shutterstock at a time of exciting growth in stock video," added Crocker, speaking on behalf of the new contributors. "We've been impressed with the growth and progress of Shutterstock, their industry-leading innovation, and the ease of working with them. We look forward to a long and successful partnership."

With added clips from Crocker, Hurst, Miller and Baumber, Shutterstock users can search an even greater selection of stock videos featuring sports and fitness, business, lifestyle, healthcare, education, aials, slow motion, animation and more.

In celebration of their arrival, Shutterstock has compiled a video reel featuring the filmmakers' work.
