

Shutterstock Reaches Milestone of 400 Million Images Licensed

April 8, 2014

NEW YORK, April 8, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Shutterstock, Inc. (NYSE: SSTK), a leading global provider of commercial digital imagery, today announced that it has sold over 400 million image licenses since its founding in 2003. This milestone highlights the company's increasing role in powering business communications worldwide. Today, nearly 1 million active customers license and download high-quality photos, vectors and illustrations at a rate of more than 3 image licenses per second.

"Businesses all over the world are communicating across a growing number of channels," said President Thilo Semmelbauer. "Shutterstock's powerful marketplace makes it easy for them to obtain high-quality, rights-cleared images," he added.

Shutterstock has one of the world's largest libraries of licensable content, with over 35 million images and 1.5 million video clips currently available from 55,000 contributing artists. More than 30,000 images are added to the collection each day, ensuring a constant stream of new and exciting content to discover. The collection also features more than 2 million editorial images from celebrity red carpet and news events.
