Item 8.01 Other Events.

James Chou, the Chief Technology Officer of Shutterstock, Inc. (the "Company") has informed the Company that, as of June 12, 2014, he amended his previously-announced pre-arranged stock trading plan to sell shares of the Company's Common Stock. Mr. Chou's trading plan is designed to comply with Rule 10b5-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Mr. Chou advised the Company that his amended stock trading plan provides for selling up to 39,750 shares (subject to, among other things, the volume limitations imposed by applicable securities regulations), which represents approximately 27% of his current holdings of the Company's Common Stock and options to purchase Common Stock.

The amended stock trading plan provides for sales of specified share amounts at specified market prices, subject to certain limitations. Sales pursuant to the amended stock trading plan are expected to begin as early as August 11, 2014 and will end no later than December 31, 2014. The amended stock trading plan may terminate sooner in accordance with its terms.

Mr. Chou has informed the Company that his sale of shares is being done for asset diversification, tax and estate planning, and charitable giving purposes.

In accordance with Rule 10b5-1, officers and directors of a public company may adopt a plan for selling stock of the public company. The plan may be entered into only when the officer or director is not in possession of material, non-public information about the company. The stock transactions under this plan will be disclosed publicly through Form 144 and Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Except as may be required by law, the Company does not undertake to report on specific Rule 10b5-1 pre-arranged stock trading plans of Company officers, nor to report modifications or terminations of the aforementioned 10b5-1 Plan or the plan of any other individual.
