Shutterstock and Penske Media Form Strategic Editorial Imagery and Video Partnership

Alliance to create leading global image library anchored by PMC’s WWD and Variety

CANNES, FRANCE, NEW YORK, NY and LOS ANGELES, CA, June 22, 2015-- Shutterstock, Inc. (NYSE: SSTK) and Penske Media Corporation (PMC) have agreed to form an alliance that will create and license entertainment and fashion images and videos to the world’s top media, publishing and creative companies.

By combining Shutterstock’s technology and innovative marketplace with PMC’s insider access, journalism excellence and event exclusivity, both companies are taking a significant step together to build the world’s best editorial service and to drive future growth.

“We are thrilled to team up with another trailblazing company to accelerate our progress in editorial imagery,” said Jon Oringer, Founder and CEO of Shutterstock. “We believe there are ways to productively improve the editorial market to better serve its influential customers and remarkable photographers and create a great business opportunity.”

“The Shutterstock team has the most compelling vision for the future direction of editorial imagery, while recognizing the value of PMC’s unique content and access across our portfolio of brands,” said Jay Penske, Chairman and CEO of Penske Media Corporation. “This alliance alters the existing model of editorial access to fashion and entertainment photography and we are thrilled to usher in a new era together.”

Highlights of the strategic alliance:

- Commencing in 2016, Shutterstock will have an exclusive worldwide right and license to PMC’s archive, including images from its legendary, 100-year-old publications Variety and WWD.
- At the more than 50 events, galas, summits and conferences PMC produces annually, Shutterstock will capture the unique moments, as well as market and license the imagery to the world’s media.
- Leveraging PMC’s insider access, Shutterstock will document leading Hollywood events which may include the Golden Globe Awards and the Academy Awards, as well as capture the latest fashion industry trends including global runway coverage and exclusive parties.
- PMC has chosen Shutterstock’s digital asset management service, WebDAM, to support its editorial and creative teams’ needs to store, organize and manage visual content on the leading cloud-based platform.

The archived and created content will be owned by PMC and available to license through Shutterstock initially via Rex Features and Shutterstock Premier.
